MARKET PREVIEW

US: U.S. stocks were mixed after the close on Friday, as gains in the Basic Materials, Utilities and Telecoms sectors led shares higher while losses in the Consumer Services, Technology and Financials sectors led shares lower. At the close in NYSE, the Dow Jones Industrial Average gained 0.05% to hit a new all time high, while the S&P 500 index declined 0.09%, and the NASDAQ Composite index lost 0.09%.

Asia: Markets in Asia opened near flat on Monday, seeking direction ahead of a relatively data-light week in the region, while investors had a muted reaction to the risks surrounding a failed military coup in Turkey. Japan Market is closed Today/

India: India stocks were lower after the close on Friday, as losses in the IT, Technology and Power sectors led shares lower. At the close in NSE, the Nifty 50 fell 0.28%, while the BSE Sensex 30 index lost 0.38%. Market is expected to open on a flattish note and likely to witness range bound session during the day.

Economy: U.S. industrial production rose in June on large gains in automotive manufacturing and utility output. consumer prices increased for a fourth straight month in June as Americans paid more for housing, gasoline and healthcare, pointing to steadily rising inflation pressures.

China's residential land prices rose faster in the second quarter than in the previous three months, while those for industrial land posted slower growth. The Industrial Production rose to 6.2%, from 6.0% in the preceding month. Chinese GDP remained unchanged at an annual rate of 6.7%, from 6.7% in the preceding month.

Consumer price inflation in the euro zone remained unchanged last month at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 0.1%.

Commodities: Oil prices were little changed in early Asian trade on Monday as traders shrugged off the impact of Friday's attempted coup in Turkey. A stronger dollar weighed on prices, although upbeat economic data from the United States and China that supported the outlook for global oil demand lent support.

Gold eased off gains in Asia on Monday in cautious trade after a failed weekend military takeover in NATO ally Turkey was assessed with sentiment that political risk for now from the event was on the wane.

Currency: The U.S. dollar gained on the yen as investors unwound safe-haven trades in the wake of the failed coup in Turkey, while a giant takeover bid in the tech sector and the promise of central bank stimulus lent support to equities.
