Debt market

- Government bonds fell after the government widened its fiscal deficit target for the next financial year as announced during the Budget presentation
- The benchmark 6.97% 2026 bond yield rose to 6.43% from 6.41% previous day
- Yield on the US 10-year rose to at 2.47% from 2.45% in the previous day

Forex (US$/INR)

- The rupee posted sharp gains of almost 0.25% on overnight weakness in US$ and expectations of a fiscal deficit target in line with estimates. Domestic equity markets rallied as the Budget was under way supporting gains in the rupee with even mild positive inflows seen in the previous few sessions
- The US$ recovered minor losses against major currencies on account of profit booking. Overall upcoming US January employment data and further executive orders or statements from US President would keep currency markets on the boil

Equity

- Equity benchmarks zoomed nearly 2% to settle at four-month highs as markets cheered the Union Budget 2017, which made no reference to long term capital gains tax on equities and also set a comfortable fiscal deficit target of 3.2% for FY18
- The Sensex rallied 485 points or 1.76% to 28141 while the Nifty surged 155 points or 1.81% to 8716
- The broader markets also surged in line with benchmarks as the BSE midcap and small cap indices rallied 1.77% and 1.68%, respectively. Overall market breadth was strong with an A/D ratio of 2:1 on the BSE

Commodities Market

- Crude oil prices jumped sharply even though US stocks rose substantially as supply cuts from Opec continue to support oil markets. US weekly stocks rose by almost 6.47 mb as crude continue to keep in large range
- Gold prices were almost unchanged although sustaining the gains accrued in previous couple of sessions. A soft US$ against major currencies and rising political uncertainty from most unexpected quarters like the US is helping gold sustain gains

US$/INR derivatives strategy

- In the currency futures market, the most traded dollar-rupee February contract on the NSE ended at 67.68. The February contract open interest rose 13.50% from the previous day
- March contract open interest rose 21.88% from previous day
- We expect the US dollar to meet supply pressure at higher levels. Utilise upsides in the dollar to go short on the US$/INR pair

NOTES:

- The Sell below / above price is a key technical level, which decides the trend for the day
- Initiate the trade within +/- 0.03—0.04 margin from the recommended level
- A return opportunity of about 0.09 paise is considered for partial profit booking post initiation of the trade
- Once the Call is initiated, an appropriate Stop Loss trigger should be put for the trade
- Once into position, put trailing stops to preserve your profits
- Be careful if the counter achieves the target immediately after opening
- The strategies are valid only for the date mentioned at the top
- Positions should be squared off by the end of the day
- The strategies are based on intra-day volatility, suggesting a two-way approach intra-day
- Medium to long-term prospects do not have any bearing on the daily view

MOST IMP: The follow-up and performance review table of the strategies indicates the profit opportunity that was available in the strategies. Individual profits may vary, depending upon the entry and exit price and stop losses
