

Market Round Up

Last week market opened on positive note and continued to see northward movement that helped nifty to test its all time high levels. However, in Friday's session due to geo political tension sell off was seen in global indices that put pressure on Indian bourses also and long unwinding dragged nifty below 9200 levels down by 64 points.

- From higher levels profit booking was seen in nifty and bank nifty fut. in Friday's session. Nifty fut shed almost 3.20 lakh shares in OI and closed at 13 points premium.
- Unwinding of long positions was seen across the board and overall stock fut. shed more than 3 Cr. shares in OI. Major booking was seen in banking, cement, realty and infra sector.
- Fresh short positions were added in stocks like ujjivan, jindalstel, jet airways, hindzinc, coalindia and biocon.
- Selected buying interest was seen in stocks like dalmiabha, mfsl, pvr, cadilac, tvsmotor and ioc.

This week markets are expected to open on flat to positive note but thereafter will continue to trade in narrow band with no clear direction. On lower end maximum put writing has been seen at 9000 strike option and that will act as strong support in short term whereas on higher side call writing at 9300 will prove as immediate resistance for nifty and above that it can test 9380-9420 levels.
