

Market Cues

Indian markets are likely to open on positive note after the election results.

US stocks remained flat as investors awaited the rate hike by the Federal Reserve. Investors strongly expect that the Federal Reserve will announce a rate hike after its meeting on Wednesday. Shares of Intel were down 2.3 percent after announcing that it planned to buy Mobileye. Health care stocks were down slightly over uncertainties over the Republicans replacement for Obamacare.

UK stocks closed slightly positive as mining stocks recovered due to higher commodity prices. UK house prices increased at their fastest pace in past twelve months in the month of February. House prices grew 0.6 percent in February MoM due to higher prices in London. Mining stocks rallied strongly as copper prices recovered. Anglo American went up by 4.12 percent and Rio Tinto added 3.96 percent. Also, BHP Billiton and Glencore rose by 2.49 and 1.40 percent respectively.

Indian markets closed flat on Friday after opening positive in the morning. Uncertainty over the election results from various states acted as a dampener to investor sentiment. Further caution was also caused by the pending release of the industrial output data.

Hindustan Zinc to invest ₹1,000cr in two more zinc fumer plants

Hindustan Zinc, one of the lowest-cost zinc producers in the world, will be investing another ₹1,000cr to set up two more zinc fumer plants over the next two-three years. A zinc fumer plant extracts metal from waste products.

The company had invested ₹570cr in its first zinc fumer plant at Chanderiya Hydro-II plant in Rajasthan. This plant is expected to start by Q1FY19.

The two new fumer plants will be funded through internal accruals. Hindustan Zinc has an overall current capacity to produce about 825,000 tonnes of zinc, 180,000 tonnes of lead and about 500 tonnes of silver per year.
