

Market Cues

Indian markets are likely to open in red tracking SGX Nifty and Asian markets.

While buying interest was somewhat subdued in US markets, stocks managed to end Friday's trading mostly higher. With the gains on the day, the tech-heavy Nasdaq reached a new record closing high. The mostly higher close on Wall Street came as traders digested earnings news from several financial giants as well as some key economic data.

The European markets bounced back from Thursday's weak performance and finished Friday's session firmly in positive territory. Pharmaceutical stocks recovered some ground following yesterday's pullback. Comments from U.S. President-elect Donald Trump's press conference on Wednesday weighed on the sector on Thursday.

Indian markets closed marginally lower on Friday to snap a three-day winning streak in spite of a good start to the earnings season, with TCS and Infosys posting encouraging quarterly results.
