'Breakout from the wedge formation concluded the termination of the corrective move. The pattern confirmed the support at 7700 & the rebound reassured the uptrend to remain firm. A breach only below 7700 would distort the ongoing bullish trend & hence servers as a trail stop for longs.

Outlook

✓ Domestic markets saw a sharp cut on Friday largely on back of global cues. US markets lost ground on Friday while Europe was largely positive. Asia is trading mixed. Indian markets having seen the correction has moved again closer to immediate support levels. Among results, Bank of Baroda operating performance was in line but clean up activity continued. Further additional employee benefit provision added to the guarterly loss. Cadila numbers were in line. Resolution to Moraiya facility remains key. Monsoon has been delayed by a few days as per MET predictions. Crude prices have held ground with Brent above $48 levels. Flows have remained reasonably supportive and markets have held out well the amendments to Mauritius treaty. Overall corporate performance has been slightly better for the quarter. These factors should support the street.

MOSt Market Outlook

Trading Calls

- 'Emami saw a breakout from its consolidation with significant volumes
- ✓ We expect the stock to revisit its life time high level near 1360 & hence it could be accumulated with stop below 1020
