MARKET PREVIEW

28069.1

US: Stocks closed lower Tuesday as U.S. oil settled below $40 for the first time since April and as the Dow closed lower for the seventh straight day.

Asia: Asian markets slipped Wednesday after U.S. stocks took their biggest loss in almost a month, underscoring simmering worries about global economic growth.

India: Market continued to struggle for direction on Tuesday as the Sensex cracked below 28,000 to close at a one-week low as investors stayed cautious ahead of GST debate in the Rajya Sabha on Wednesday amid weak European cues. Broader markets did not show enough appetite either, with the BSE small-cap and mid-cap indices ending lower by 0.83% and 0.62%, respectively. Among the BSE sectoral indices, FMCG index closed with the biggest jump up 1.7% while Metal index ended with the biggest decline, down 1.8%. Market is expected to open on a slightly negative note and likely to witness range bound session during the day.

Economy: U.S. consumer spending rose more than expected in June as households bought goods and services, suggesting strength that appeared to be sustained early in the third quarter with auto sales surging to an eight-month high in July.

Japan's monetary base fell less-than-expected last month. Japan's Monetary Base fell to 24.7%, from 25.4% in the preceding month. Analysts had expected Japan's Monetary Base to fall to 24.3% last month

U.K. construction sector activity slipped further into contraction in July though new orders decreased at a slower pace. U.K. construction purchasing managers' index fell to a seasonally adjusted 45.9 from June's reading of 46.0. Economists had expected the index to drop to 43.8 in July.

Commodities: Oil prices edged up early on Wednesday, supported by a weaker dollar, but U.S. crude futures remained below $40 per barrel and Brent was below $42 as ongoing fuel oversupply and stuttering economic growth weighed on markets.

Gold prices fell on Wednesday in Asia on profit-taking as the yellow metal benefits from continued easy global monteary policies.

Currency: The dollar extended losses to hit a fresh five-week trough against the other major currencies on Tuesday, following news of additional stimulus measures in Japan and as lower expectations for a U.S. rate hike before the end of the year continued to weigh.
