Market Review 25.9.17

Nifty (9964) we said, technically now this is little sluggishness witnessed and so I would look for 10000 as a psychological support and resistance at 10180-10211' the Nifty unfolded sluggish as expected but it turned out more sluggish and has closed below the psychological 10000 mark and in the process generating a bearish pattern...technically if the down move continues then I would not be surprised if it slides down to 9874 zones...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9932-9874 and the resistance is at 10043
