Market Review 3.4.17

Nifty (9174) we said 'technically the Nifty still looks up and can climber higher to 9218 zones as long as 9130 holds' the Nifty opened in the red to trade in the green and close flat for the day...technically Nifty has stopped near a strong resistance...technically the trend is still intact up and upside to 9218-9245 is still a possibility and the first sign of weakness would be when the Nifty trades below the crucial support of 9130...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9130-9050 and the resistance is at 9200-9218-9245
