Market Review 14.11.17

Nifty (10187) we said, technically now we are very close to the first line of defense at 10184 and if that goes then even 10089 is not ruled out...stiff resistance is at 10380' the Nifty opened flat but could not sustain in the green and sold off to drift down and close on our support of 10184 like a dot...technically the Nifty is at a place where it can bounce back if it has to, the place is just right but the confirmation will if it starts to trade above 10270 and if it drifts down then it can slide to its next logical target of 10089 & 9994...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 10184-10089-9994 and the resistance is at 10270
