Market Review 19.6.17

Nifty (9588) we said 'technically there is selling pressure in the upper regions and so a slide to 9520 is still a possibility but I would also not rule out a sharp up move as well' the Nifty opened in the green and traded flat for the day to close mildly positive...technically now 9518 is a possibility if 9560 gives in and the breakout level is 9620

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9560-9520 and the resistance is at 9620-9700-9724
