Market Review 22.8.17

Nifty (9754) we said, technically the last hour of trading is suggestive of short covering up move and so some more down side is not ruled out but it climbs up then it is likely to find some resistance near 9911' the Nifty unfolded as expected and cracked after opening in the green and closing in the red right on our support like a dot...technical now 9685 is under threat...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9685 and the resistance is at 9860-9911
