Market Review 24.3.17

Nifty (9086) we said 'technically now 8990-8950 is the next support zone and resistance is around 9060 zones' the nifty opened with bull gap trapping yesterdays short and climbing past our resistance to close in the green...technically the setup is such that that it can climb higher for a day or two but Nifty Banks looks to be not as strong and so I would doubt the up move Nifty if it comes...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 8990-8950 and the resistance is at 9130-9150
