Market Review 26.7.17

Nifty (9965) we said 'technically now the next logical target is 10036 as long as 9920 holds' the Nifty opened with a bang above the 10000 mark and traded down to close flat for the day.... technically the trend is still intact up and the logical technical target still is valid as long as 9920 holds...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9920 and the resistance is at 10036...
