Market Review 27.6.17

Nifty (9575) we said 'technically the trend is still intact up but there is selling pressure in the upper regions and so some more selling pressure is not ruled out and slide to 9560 is a possibility if it breaks 9620' the Nifty unfolded weak as expected and saw the low at our support and closed in the red...technically a sell been generated and a stiff resistance exists at 9620 and a slide to 9520-9466 is a possibility....

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9520-9466 and the resistance is at 9620-9700-9724
