Market Review 28.2.17

Nifty (8897) we said 'technically 9000 is a stiff resistance and so volatility is not ruled out' the Nifty opened in the green but could not sustain in the upper regions and closed in the red right on our support...technically now 8969 is a stiff resistance and down side to 8850 is a possibility...

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 8850 and the resistance is at 8969
