Market Review 28.9.17

Nifty (9736) we said, technically there is more downside possible and if it slides down then the next logical technical target is 9727...stiff resistance 9952' the Nifty opened flat but traded down the whole day taking care to take support from our support of 9727 and close in the red...technically now the market is at a place where it can bounce from for F&O Expiry possibly a relief rally...now if it slides down then the next logical technical target would be 9596...stiff resistance is at 9816-9946

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9596 and the resistance is at 9816-9946
