Market Review 30.8.17

Nifty (9796) we said 'technically now 9860 is a crucial support to deal with and the logical target is 9965-10005 zones' the Nifty opened in the green and sold off during the day breaching our crucial support of 9860 and closing in the red... technically now 9740 is a very crucial support and breach of 9740 could bring in more selling...stiff resistance exists at 9912

The crucial support for the Nifty is at 9740 and the resistance is at 9965
