Outlook for the day

Indian Equity market took a breather today and lost nearly half a percent as traders preferred to book some profit. Mixed global cues and profit taking in select index majors pulled the index lower. investors chose to sit tight ahead of a speech by Donald Trump before the Congress this week and the UP Assembly election results which will be important driver for the market. On the technical front, formed a Bearish candle after six consecutive up session. It failed to surpass psychological 9000 and started to turn lower which is giving an early sign of caution in the market. Continuous buying from the institutional level might prevent big slide on indices and overbought nature on daily charts also reinstate the same. Supports now is placed at 8800-8850 below it at 8700, while resistance is pegged at psychological level of 9000 and above it at 9100-9150 zone. On the F&O front Market wide rollover of F&O contracts stood at 77% in line with the 3-months average of 78%. Nifty futures, witnessed 73% rollover, compared to 3-months average of 69%. March series option data depicts highest call concentration at 9000 while highest Put concentration is at 8500. Incremental built-up was visible in 8700 PE and 8900 CE.
