Wake-Up

Domestic-

Corporate-

- Yes Bank: Yes Bank scrapped its $1-billion share sale less than 24 hours after launch, as the share price collapsed due to poor investor appetite and the management, blamed 'extreme volatility' and poor advice on regulations by investment banks Goldman Sachs, Nomura and CLSA.
- Crompton Greaves Consumer Electrical: Reserve Bank has allowed foreign investors to buy up to 100 per cent in Crompton Greaves Consumer Electricals Ltd. As of June 2016, the promoter group held 34.38% in the company, while the rest was held by the public.
- Jindal Saw: To curb excess volatility, leading stock exchange BSE today tweaked the circuit limit for share movement of 10 companies, including Jindal Saw.
- Zensar Technologies: RPG Group's IT firm Zensar Technologies, has secured a digital transformation project from South Africa's taxi fleet management company Avis Fleet.
- Apollo Tyres: Apollo Tyres said it has inked a global sponsorship agreement with Manchester United Football Club for the next three years.
- Motherson Sumi: Motherson Sumi has launched a qualified institutional placement (QIP) through which it plans to raise Rs 1,500-2,000 crore, The QIP will be priced at Rs 317-320 per share.

Comments: Benchmark indices ended near day's high amid choppy trades as investors across the globe have turned cautious ahead of the European Central Bank (ECB)'s monetary policy decision later in the global day.
