Market Review

US: S&P 500 and the Nasdaq edged higher in a choppy session on Monday amid soft manufacturing sector data and as a glitch on the NYSE briefly caused trading halts in dozens of equities.

Asia: Asian stocks declined after concerns about the health of the US economy outweighed expectations for early Federal Reserve policy easing.

India: Markets started the week strongly, gaining over 3% primarily due to exit poll numbers indicating political stability. Following a sharp gap-up, the Nifty steadily climbed throughout the day, closing near the day's high at 23,263.90. All major sectors, except IT, contributed to the rise, with banking and metal sectors leading the gains. Market is expected to open on a positive note and likely to witness volatile move during the day

Global Economy: South Korea's consumer inflation slowed for a second straight month in May to a 10-month low, official data showed on Tuesday, coming in lower than market expectations. The consumer price index (CPI) in May stood 2.7% higher than a year earlier, slower than a rise of 2.9% in April and a gain of 2.8% tipped in a Reuters survey of economists. It was the slowest annual increase since July. By product, prices of agricultural products fell 2.5% over the month, but petroleum products rose 0.3% and personal service prices gained 0.4%.

Australian government spending rose in the March quarter to make a much needed contribution to economic growth, data showed on Tuesday, helping offset a steep drag from net exports. Spending on operational items rose 1.0% in the first quarter from the previous quarter to an inflation-adjusted A$135.7 billion ($90.61 billion), the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) reported. Total investment in fixed assets by the government and public enterprises fell 0.9% to A$33.1 billion. In all, the ABS estimated total public demand added 0.2 percentage points to March-quarter gross domestic product

Commodities: Gold prices edged higher as signs of cooling U.S. inflation lifted hopes for interest rate cuts from the Federal Reserve this year, while traders awaited a slew of U.S. economic data due this week.

Oil prices fell to a four-month low in Asian trade on Tuesday, extending losses after the OPEC+ signaled it will begin tapering off its production cuts this year, while weak economic data raised concerns about sluggish demand

Currency: The dollar stabilized after weakening against most of its Group-of-10 counterparts earlier. Asian currencies such as the Thai baht and Malaysian ringgit strengthened.
