- ICICI Prudential Life Insurance: ICICI Prudential Life Insurance Co, India's only listed life insurance company, has confirmed its interest in buying the beleaguered Sahara Life insurance.
- Amtek Auto: Proxy advisor Stakeholders Empowerment Services (SES) has questioned the infusion of loans to Amtek Auto by promoter firms Aisa International and Amtek Laboratories, doubting the funding source as the two companies have not filed their returns since 2014.
- Sun Pharma: The pharma major, India's largest drug maker, signed a long-term agreement with South Korea's Samsung BioLogics for the manufacture of an experimental medicine to treat psoriasis.
- ABC Bearings: This company on Wednesday informed bourses that the board has approved the merger of ABC Bearings as a going concern with Timken India .
- Bajaj Finance: Global brokerage house Credit Suisse maintained 'Underperform' rating on Bajaj Finance with a target price of Rs 970 per share.
- Jyoti Structures: The clock has started ticking for Jyoti Structures, the first of the 12 large defaulters against which banks have proceeded under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code following directions from the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). The National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) on Tuesday admitted bankruptcy proceedings against the Mumbai-based company, a move which could result in either new owners or liquidation.
- Reliance Communications: Billionaire Anil Ambani-owned Reliance Communications (RCom) will not pay outstanding interest until December, on its bonds held by LIC of India, the country's largest insurer, as the telco seeks to shed Rs 25,000 crore of debt as part of a financial restructuring.

Comments:

The benchmark indices snapped three-session long gaining streak to end flat on Tuesday tracking negative trend seen in Asian and European markets after North Korea fired a missile that landed in Japanese waters, deepening concerns over the isolated nation's nuclear capabilities.
